Itinerary

Day 1	July 21 (Wed) Departure from Atlanta Leave Atlanta for Bristol, England Airport. Recommended flights will be provided but are not mandatory.
Day 2	July 22 (Thurs) – Fly into Bristol, England Coach from the airport to our first destination—Cardiff, Wales.
Day 3		July 23 (Fri) – Cardiff Castle to experience the presence of the Romans and Normans. We will also see the stunning décor created by the Stuart family. If you've been to Mount Stuart House on Bute Island, you'll immediately recognize the same style and similar décor. You'll also experience a World War II bomb shelter built into the curtain wall of the castle grounds. You will have free time in the afternoon to explore Cardiff and relax on your first day in the UK!
Day 4		July 24 (Sat) – Day trip to Western Wales Our first stop will be Pembroke Castle, first built in 1093 at the heart of the Norman-controlled lands of South Wales. After lunch, we will travel west to St. David's Cathedral situated at the most westerly point of Wales.
Day 5	July 25 (Sun) - Day trip to Wye Valley Travel back to Roman times as we visit the Roman Amphitheatre and Roman Baths at Caerleon. Stops will include Chepstow Castle , Tintern Abbey , and the village of Monmouth .
Day 6	July 26 (Mon) - Tintagel Depart for Cornwall . We will visit Tintagel Castle , the birthplace of King Arthur, and see the breathtaking views as we cross the new footbridge which recreates the historic crossing from mainland to headland.
Day 7	 	July 27 (Tues) - Eden Project and Penzance Morning and lunch will be spent at the Eden Project , home of two biomes located in a reclaimed china clay pit. Back in Penzance , don't miss Jubilee Pool , the UK'S largest, most celebrated art deco sea water lido and geothermally heated pool! Don't forget your suit!

Itinerary, continued

July 28 (Wed) - Free time in Penzance & an evening at the Minack Theatre Optional field trip to St. Michael's Mount (tide permitting) or hang out in Penzance. After dinner we will see a play at the Minack Theatre, Cornwall's world famous open-air theatre.

Day 8

July 29 (Thurs) – Levant Mine, Batollack Mine & St. Ives

The rugged east coast of Cornwall is home to several tin mines. and a working steam-powered beam engine. If you are a Poldark fan, you don't want to miss this!

Day 9

July 30 (Fri) – Exeter Cathedral, Glastonbury

On our way to Bath we will stop at Exeter Cathedral for lunch. Next stop is Glastonbury Abbey to see the site where King Arthur and Guinevere are reportedly buried.

Day 10
